“ Paul could challenge any of the other drummers with one hand tied behind his back, grinning the whole time. We enjoyed his stories of Myrtle Beach in 1954 and the dirt roads his family followed to vacation here. He was a natural comedian and taught young bands how to improve when he "filled in." His drum solos inspired audiences to standing ovations. We enjoyed watching him perform with Latitude, Stringwood, numerous blues bands, and his own creation, Da Sofa Kings." We give thanks for Paul's life. We miss him. May he rest in peace.##imported-begin##Bill & Brenda Camp##imported-end##
