“ It says share a memory but I don't really have that many memories so I'm just gonna talk. It's been eight years since you passed and I miss you more and more every year.

There's times where I think of you and smile about the stupid stuff we would do when mom wasn't home... Making forts and obstacle course when mom would continuously tell us not to, playing foot ball and of course breaking lamps all the money wasted buying lamps just to break them. But then there's also the times when I think of you and I just don't feel as happy because of how early you were taken from me. It is especially hard when I see my friends laughing and having fun with their fathers.... But then I think if you were still here we would be doing all that stuff and more. I love you Dad SO much and I'll NEVER forget you.

- love your Son PJ

“ When I think about Paul I will always remember how he used to hug me every time he saw me and how it made me so nervous but somehow his loving nature made me look forward to getting those hugs. Paul always made me laugh every time I saw him and I miss the jokes we always had on the phone through Lisa who is my best friend. My heart aches for Lisa, Katy, and PJ and I am saddened at the thought of not seeing Paul when I visit Myrtle Beach. Paul and his family taught me that it is ok to let others get close even close enough for hugs and I will never forget that. Thanks and I love you Paul###imported-begin###Phyllis###imported-end##

“ How do i say goodbye to my best friend? You are a fabulous father, a wonderful husband, and we miss you more every day. You never understood how much you effected the people who knew you or how much every person who knew you loved you. You just never understood that. The sorrow I see in their faces or in their voices. You touched alot of peoples lives all for the good, especially mine and our babies. I will love you now and for always. The babies and I will see you again. So, for now goodbye MY LOVE!###imported-begin###Lisa###imported-end##

“ It's Been 10 Days since you Went back home. The sorrow that we feel is for us and the children, Katy, P.J. & Teagan. For we know that you are in Heaven with the Lord. It is us that remain here. Our journey is not over yet. When you came into our family 21 years ago, it felt like you filled a spot that had been missing, I finally had not 1 but 2 brothers, you & Jeffrey. Pauly, you taught me so much about how to be a good father, brother, & friend. You are greatly missed, but I know that we will meet again on that "long, lonesome highway, east of Omaha." I love You Pauly.##imported-begin##Brother #2 Sunny##imported-end##

“ How do you put into words how much someone meant to you? Paul probably made more of an impression on me than anyone else I've ever met. He is an exceptional, unique, funloving, wonderful person. Luckily he found his perfect match when he found you. I wish I could find the words to tell you how I feel, and I wish I could think of some way to help with your pain, but I can't. Your memories, though, are your gift. Those will always be there to comfort you. Pauls light will never go out. All the people that love him will make sure of that. With love, Nancy##imported-begin##Nancy##imported-end##

“ When I think of Paul Scott, what comes to mind for me , is a spidly legged, tow headed, big blue-eyed little boy, that was a joy to be with. He then continued on to be the same as he grew through the years into the wonderful man that he became. His love for family, friends, and the unique personality that was Paul, could not be denied. Paul Scott will be missed greatly in this world, and will always have a special place within my heart. I love him, but know that his place in heaven, was also as empty a space, as it is now here on earth. God took Paul home to care for him. We must keep our memories close within our hearts, and know that someday, we will be with him again. Paul Scott's Aunt Patty McCullough###imported-begin###Patty Mazzeo###imported-end##

“ Paul was such a wonderful man, husband, and father. I wish that I had gotten to know Paul better. The times that I did get to visit with him he was always the light in the room. “ Paul was an exceptional man who learned how to love by meeting his Princess Lisa Mullins. When their love created their daughter Katy, Paul had two princesses to love endlessly. Their love also grew when their son PJ was born. Paul knew at this time he had everything he ever wanted, needed and more. Paul was also a comedian up until the end and will always be remembered as a wonderful son, husband, father and friend. As each day passes his love, morals and values will be seen thru his children and wife to still fulfill his dream of endless true love with happiness. To Lisa, Katy and PJ, You will find that each day will allow you to cherish your moments with your husband/dad to help take away the deep sorrow you are experiencing today. Allow yourself to listen to your heart and his voice to guide you to the right decision in all you do in your life. With all my love, Aunt Gigi###imported-begin###Georgia Pell###imported-end##
