“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ To the family of Polly Clark-Chapman, I was very suprised to hear of her sudden passing. It seems like God puts people in our lives for reasons that we may never understand. Some people he takes away and other people take thier place. Life is full of twists and turns and hard to live at times. We all have to make the best of what we have been given even though things may not always be the way we would like them to be. In the end i suppose all that matters is that we take time to appreciate the many blessings that God has given us and someday he will reveal the reasons for why our lives intersect with each other. Some day that circle will be unbroken in heaven with the ones we love and the ones who have loved us. Oh what a wonderful day that will be!! I hope you find the peace in your hearts to deal with your loss and enjoy what life you have left with family and friends who care for you because it passes in the blink of an eye. We have no promise of tomorrow only here and now. One day at a time is the best any of us can do. God bless and watch over you all.

“ My heart is breaking. Polly was one of my true friends that gave me one of the best days of my life last summer. We rode the golf cart all afternoon and stopped for a lovely lunch. I will never forget the good time and many laughs we had that day. I am so glad I got to see her just hours before she passed to tell her how much I loved her and appreciated her.

Dave, Joe and I are here for you for anything. Love and miss you Polly.

“ I like to express my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of, Pauline. At times like this I like to search for way to bring comfort to people who have lost their loved ones. I have founded that there is no better place to go to find comfort, than God's Holy Bible. It is written to help us, to direct us and to guide us 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4 says "Praised be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials so that we may be able to comfort others in any sort of trial with the comfort that we receive from God." Our loving heavenly father, being the great creator that he is, knows the pain and sorrow that you are going through. He also tells us in his Holy word the Bible, that death is not necessarily the permanent end of our existence. By means of a resurrection, God will bring back to life people who have died.—John 5:28, 29- "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Acts 24:15--15 says, "And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Revelation 21:4 tells us not to be afraid "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." We know this because the Bible says at Hebrew 6:18 that, "It is impossible for God to lie." I hope you will find comfort in these words from the Bible. *Dave and T,
I go back a long time with Polly, she was always a lot of fun to be with, always laughing and making everyone around her laugh. I have kept up with her thru the years on E-mail and enjoyed all the jokes and messages she sent me. I will miss them so much as I love hearing from my friends.
I was praying that she would be around for many more years, but God had another place for her.
