“ To the Family: I am so sorry for your loss. May Jehovah God comfort and support you during this most difficult time. Psalms 147:3 says, that God "is healing the brokenhearted ones, and is binding up their painful spots." We must take heart because we have hope, for He has promised through His son, Jesus and others that "there is going to be a resurrection." (John 5:25, 26, 28, 29: Acts 26:15) As we remind ourselves and learn all we can about what the Holy Bible says about life, death and the resurrection, may our faith come to be assured as Martha, who with faith and conviction said to Jesus, concerning her brother, Lazarus, "I know he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day." Meanwhile, may these divine promises give you hope and help you to cope. You have my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Tammy Johnson##imported-end##
