“ Steve and Ann, I will always remember Pearlie Mae's smile and her exhuberance for life! She was so proud of Rodney's musical accomplishments and was thrilled to hear he was studying organ with me the day we met. She and my mother, Weezie, enjoyed dining together at the Place, and I'm SURE they are both organzing things in heaven now! Know that I pray for you and your entire family as you deal with this loss and I rejoice with you that Pearlie Mae is in heaven with her Lord and her beloved husband. I look forward to her celebration of life tomorrow and know that all willl be blessed by the words spoken and the music they hear. To God be all the glory! “ I am Pearlle's first cousin. Our mothers were sisters. I have many happy memories of Pearlle visiting our home and I visiting hers. I spent one week each summer with them. My husband and I visited Pearlle several years ago in SC when she was still in her condo. I'm sure she will be missed greatly. I will treasure the fond memories of her.##imported-begin##Hilda Evans##imported-end##

“ Dear Ones, Please accept my sincere and heartfelt sorrow over the loss of Pearlie Mae. What a dear sweet soul she was and will always be to my family and to me. I would not give anything for the time we shared at the store, her words of wisdom and advise, her cute and jolly laugh and her overall giving spirit. I will certainly miss her, but feel very rich for what she brought into my life by knowing and loving her. Most sincerely, Harriette###imported-begin##Harriette Louis###imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I just wanted to say that I'm thinking about all of you in a special way. Pearlie Mae was such a special person to all the Bass family. When Daddy became Pastor at FBC in 1985, I was a Jr. in High School and it was a very difficult move for me. Pearlie Mae prayed me through some very difficult times and became a very special part of my life. She helped give the rehearsal dinner for my wedding and served the cake at our reception. She and my parents had a very special friendship and she will be greatly missed!###imported-begin##Beth Bass Turner###imported-end##
