“ Dear Jimmy and Suzie; It's been many years since I had spent time with you, your Mom, my Uncle Tomas Harry and our families. I had kept in touch with your Mom for many years and I've always considered her a Saint. I didn't find out about her passing until now and I'm very sorry for your loss. She was a wonderful woman. She reminded me so much of my own mother and she epitomized the gentle, understanding, patient and soft spoken but tough Southern woman. I hope this message gets to you two but I'll understand because it's been a month or so since she passed and you probably aren't checking this guest book anymore. I'm going to try to get your addresses and send you a short letter. My deepest sympathies are with you and I know how hard this holiday season will be without your Mom. God Bless You.
