Tom:
I am so sorry for the loss of your mama. I know the empty feeling of losing a parent. You, April and the children will be in my prayers.

“ Tom, Susan and family,

Sorry to read of the passing of Peggy. She was indeed an extra-ordinary person who did a lot of extra-ordinary things. I shared a bible study with her at the Snider House and will never forget the evening we prepared refreshments for the group. We had BLT sandwiches and a dessert. I was in a panic that we would never get this together by 6:00 p.m. Peggy, as usual, calmed me down and said we will make it. She was truly a southern, unique lady who loved life and doing for others. May God's peace and loving spirit surround you in the days ahead.

*Tom & Family-
Your mother was a lovely person who was always a joy to be around. She was a giver & loved you all dearly. She will be missed, but she is in Heaven now - without pain. That in itself should be reassuring to you all. Please know our family's thoughts & prayers are with you all. God is good...all of the time.
With much love,
