“ Ms Sandy - I hope you will remember me. I stayed with you and your family and had some of my most memorable summers with you. I loved your father and mother so much. One of my most wonderful memories was when we took you new Mustang to Myrtle Beach, along with LouJane, and were late coming back for your curfew. As we hurried along, a bat flew in the window and we stopped the car and tried (three screaming girls) to get it out so we could get on home. Your dad was waiting and when we told him what happened, he laughed that great laugh and said it must be true, because nobody could make that stuff up. He made fun of my "Yankee" accent. What a lovely man.

“ Mrs. Georgia Anne, Sandra, Ronnie and Kay and the Graham family. I am so sorry for your loss. I will always remember Mr. Ibra's happy and kind ways when Sandra and I were growing up. He was always such a pleasant person and a pleasure to be around. I loved his laugh especially. May your grief be softened by the many happy memories he left for us. I Love You All, Lou Jane##imported-begin##Lou Jane Chestnut##imported-end##
