“ I feel blessed to have been able to care for such a sweet, gentle man. He always made me laugh with a little joke even when I know he was in pain. Last week he lost his iphone and had me call it for him ...to find it hiding under his bottom. It was good to see him laugh over something so silly. All his family/friends are in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Michelle Bowne##imported-end##

“ Hello Scott and Sheri, I hope you will accept my deepest sympathies on the loss of your father. Chris and I were high school buddies and very close at the time. He was a sweet, wonderful young man. Thoughtful, somewhat timid but always reliable, caring and trustworthy. Times with him are among some of my fondest memories. Including a time after we had gone to college and I visited him in Cincinnati. It was dark, we were walking in a small alley and I commented to Chris "oh look, there's a small puppy someone has left out". As I started to reach down for it, he grabbed my hand and started to run as he yelled, "that's no puppy, it's a rat..." We laughed for hours about it. For what do we live if not our sweetest memories..... Lura Tabor Jones##imported-begin##Lura Tabor Jones##imported-end##

“ Chris was one of the kindest persons that I have ever met. I no longer remember the exact wording, but I still retain the feeling about the brief comments that he wrote for me in my senior class yearbook at Huntington East High School. I will always remember him for being a true gentleman, even as a high school student. My wife's brother died from amyloidosis several years ago, and I deeply regret that Chris also suffered from that affliction. May he truly rest in peace. “ My heart sunk when I read the obituary in today’s newspaper. I will truly miss Chris. He was a tireless, dedicated board member for the Waterway Village HOA. He was the reliable and go-to guy for board members and residents of Waterway Village. He did whatever was needed without complaint to resolve the issues associated with the daily happenings of the association, often in what could be a thankless job. I served with Chris for two years on the board, and I always admired his candor, his dedication and his willingness to do whatever tasks when laborers were few. He was also a spiffy casual dresser who wore some of the coolest walking shorts on the Grand Strand. To all those who loved him, I will be praying for you, hoping the memories of him will help you during your time of mourning.##imported-begin##Johanna D. Wilson##imported-end##

“ To: Fanfamily, friends and everyone who loved Chris, Carol and I are very sorry to hear of the passing of Chris. I served on the HOA Board with Chris and worked with him on many other projects important to the welfare of the residents of Waterway Village. He was tireless in his efforts to help the community, with no other agenda than to be helpful to everyone. He endured the criticism, sometimes of the very people he was trying to help and never found it necessary to raise his voice or embarrass anyone while doing a job that he was never given enough credit for. Waterway Village will miss him more than they know. Rich & Carol Sanborn##imported-begin##Rich & Carol Sanborn##imported-end##

“ I was fortunate enough to know Chris my entire life, growing up next to him on Forest Rd., our Mother's were best friends and he always called me "Sis". We stayed in close contact over the years and talked nearly every week or so up until he passed. He was a wonderful person, positive and had a great ear. We laughed, talked finances, had bets on which one of us would own a home with 2 master suites in it, one for he or I and the other for our Mother....I won that bet, my Mom came to live with me before her passing and then we went to our next bet, who would outlive the other. I always told Chris he would win, he had that longevity on his Mom's side of the family and I didn't....but I won that bet too, just wasn't happy about winning because it meant I lost my "Brother". Chris had a jewel in Nancy and always had her best interest at heart. I am proud to have known him my entire life and prouder that he made me the "Sis" he never had. Love you much! See you on the other side.....##imported-begin##Sande Horvath Sturgeon##imported-end##
