“ We met Gerry and his wife Ginny when they move to the community, I think it was 2005. Like me, he was a Tennis Player and a Bridge player and we spent many times as Tennis partners and opponents and the same with Bridge. We also enjoyed going to concerts and out-to-dinner and my wife and I will have many fond memories of our times together.

I remember one evening we went to a local restaurant for dinner and Ginny and my wife had some errands so Ginny drove her car and I took Gerry home in my 1957 Thunderbird. It was a cool evening, but Gerry, being a tall, heavy set gentleman, had trouble getting in the car, so put the convertible top down so he could get in the car. I looked through the windshield but Gerry was looking over it. Fortunately it was a short ride home and it was only time he rode in my classic car.

We will miss you Gerry. Our sympathy to his family.

“ One of my favorite memories was around Thanksgiving early 2000's. Liz and I lived up in Boston. I wanted to ask Gerry for his permission to marry his daughter. We were walking around Newbury Street...the ladies were shopping and walking ahead. I asked if he would hang behind for a minute while they went into a store. I was nervous because you only get one shot at it! I told him how much I loved his daughter and wanted to marry her. Not sure how it all came out but he shook my hand and said they were hoping it would happen and how happy they were. He proceeded to go into the store and I stayed behind to exhale.

Not sure what was lost in translation, but he proceeded to go in and walk up to Liz and tell her, "Russ just told me something outside...do you want to tell your mother or should I?"...a confused Liz came outside and asked what I just told her father. I had to do some serious tap dancing to come up with something on the spot. He had thought I already asked Liz to marry me. Anyways, he came outside a minute or so later with a look of "oh boy, I just blew it". It took some time, but we got a good laugh out of it and it was a moment I'll never forget! He was a one of a kind individual with endless curiosity and knowledge. He will be missed but loved endlessly.

“ I only knew Gerry after he retired but found him to be a friend and remarkable man. He played tennis even though it was often hard to breathe. We all admired him for that. Always pleasant, always focused on others, not himself. We did several projects to maintain the tennis facilities. We played bridge in two groups where he was a polite partner and a friendly opponent. We miss you Gerry. Forrest Meiere
