“Dad, The depth of your absence is undeniable. My heart is heavy thinking how much I'll miss you. I'm incredibly grateful that you not only came into my life, but how you enriched it in so many ways. You not only stepped up to the plate, you hit a home run in fatherhood & as a poppie. Your presences brought so much joy & happiness. Your wit was like no other. Until the Lord rejoins us -please continue to be the awesome father you were Thank you for loving me. I love you Your daughter Donna
