

Philip R. Morris

April 30, 1939 - January 20, 2017

Philip R. Morris, age 77 of Ashwood Lane, died Friday, January 20, 2017 at Kingston Nursing Center.

Born in Highview, WV, he was a son of the late Talmadge and Ruby Morris.

Mr. Morris retired as a fuel superintendent from Andrews Air Force Base, after 21 years of service in the United States Air Force. He was stationed all over the United States and spent time stationed in Japan, Philippines, and Vietnam. He enjoyed bowling and working with computers. In addition to his parents, Mr. Morris was preceded in death by a brother, Ronald Morris.

Survivors include his wife of 32 years, Debbie Morris; daughter, Cheryl D. Hart (Vic) of Winchester, VA; granddaughter, Samantha (Kyle) of Stephens City, VA; aunts, Margel Hawkins and Ida Mae Pugh; several nieces and nephews; and brothers and sisters-in-law.

The family will receive friends from 6:00-8:00 PM Tuesday, January 24, 2017 at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel.

Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society, 950 48th Ave. N. suite 101, Myrtle Beach, SC 29577.

An online guestbook is available at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com/obituaries
Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

“ *Debbie,
I got your sweet card today. Thank you.
We were so very, very sorry to learn of Philip's passing. He was a wonderful man.
I know he fought a tough battle.
Our thoughts and prayers are with you.
