“ Gary, AKA Gaggy was a dear uncle of mine. Eventhough I didn't know him all too well til I got to spend time with him during these last months of his life. I am glad to have been his company, and caretaker. He was a great story teller and i've learned a lot from him about many things during this time. Also built a closeness with him, that I will miss very much. Until we meet again Gaggy... I LOVE YOU!! Tell Nana I say hello.##imported-begin##Heather Weeks##imported-end##

“ I am grateful for having had the opportunity to know Uncle Gary. He was kind, caring, and took the time to enlighten me of our rich Irish heritage by sharing stories and pictures passed down by Nana Eileen. I will miss you, but am thankful you made your journey to heaven so your suffering is over. You will remain in my heart always.##imported-begin##Ashley Weeks-Delgado##imported-end##

“ Gary and I were near contemporaries, as I was born in June 1951. However I only met him once in the last 25 years, when I visited Eileen in Myrtle Beach in the mid 1985's. Eileen or "Baby" as she was affectionately known to her cousin Nell Buchan, and to all her relatives here in Cork, had not been home to Ireland for many years when I visited, being the first, and perhaps only member of our family to do so. I was delighted to meet Gary, Patrick and Suzanne at that time, as we were all young children when we had previously met as two families in Cork, and really did not know each other. Gary and I corresponded by email, especially around the time of both Nellie and Eileen's deaths, and occasionally by phone. The condolences of all the O'Brien family in Cork goes out to his siblings and extended family. David###imported-begin##David O'Brien###imported-end##

“ Sharon Weeks has consistently lifted Gary's name up for prayer when she came to Good News Club each Tuesday. It's so beautiful to see a very close knit family who believes in the power of God. Our Club and Prayer Teams at Little River U. Methodist Church will continue to pray for Gary's family as they grieve his passing!
