“ We always enjoyed seeing Phoebe and Alan at Carolina Trust FCU events. Phoebe always had a ready smile, was interested in others and their activities, and enjoyed our social gatherings. You could tell that Phoebe adored Alan, and he, Phoebe. She had an infectious laugh and upbeat personality, and we enjoyed her company so much. We are so sorry for your loss, Alan. May God bless you both, and may memories of happier, healthier times sustain you in the days, weeks, months and years ahead.

“Phoebe was my first manager after I graduated college. I worked with her in Marketing, and she taught me about MLS, placing real estate ads and she approved my first press release. We shared a work area, which means we shared a lot of stories and lots of laughs. I enjoyed hearing stories about Bunky and heard her sing in one of her many Christmas Cantatas. Years later, I would work at the financial institution where Alan served on volunteer committees and now the Board. I would see her at special events and dinners where she would meet my husband, and we would share stories and laugh. She loved the one about us moving into our first home, preheating the oven and smelling smoke. The warranty information and cleaning instructions had been left inside and almost caught fire. She laughed so much about that story and would always say, “You haven’t almost burned down your house again, have you Angelia?” She was such a joy to know and someone with whom you could share your heart. Phoebe was positive, dedicated and a loving person, and she will be greatly missed by so many. May God comfort her family and friends. Angelia and Eric Johnson

“ To my dearest sister Phoebe, words can't begin to describe the loss of loosing you! None of us realized how close you were to each of us, as everyone of us said how close we are/were with you! Bottom line all your brothers and sisters were equal to you. You made us all feel so special. We can only hope to try and live out your legacy. You are deeply, deeply missed by all your siblings, nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews plus all your cousins, friends and the entire Rosensteel Family, but most of all your husband Alan. Our hearts hurt for him. I seen one of your close friends at church today and got choked up knowing you wouldn't be back to share the laughter and memories of the past like you did a few years ago. It's so hard to let you go, but I know you are in a much better place. Love and miss you soooooo much! Till we meet again! Your sister Susan

“ Phoebe was my new Home Coordinator at CB Chicora for 17 years. She was a very supportive person with always positive comments and cheerful thoughts. When the market was terrible and we were all struggling, Phoebe always had hope in her heart and encouragement to all of us. I am so saddened of her passing and have nothing but fond memories and good laughs with Phoebe. May the Lord hold her in the palm of His hand.

Phoebe was truly one of a kind. I had the honor of working with her for over 18 years. Her attitude and ability to find positives no matter the situation was inspiring and contagious. Her memory will continue to be. She brightened a room and always took a moment to ask about your day and your family. She always had a kind and uplifting word. My thoughts and prayers go out to Alan and the family. I hope that you find comfort in knowing that she is in a better place and we are all better for having known her -May God bless you and hold you always.
