“ Dear Phyllis Ann, I am so very sorry you lost your fight with cancer. Thank you for seeing me through my illness and being an attentive cousin to me. Although, I knew you as a child, you were so darn cute, and I loved you so much, I never had the privilege of meeting you as an adult. I felt your presence when you wrote, and we built a good relationship through the mail. Your writings of the words of God were truly blessings. I count myself fortunate to have had a cousin such as you. I love you Phyllis Ann, and I will miss you. I would like to extend the Tomlinson Family my sincere condolences for your loss. May God Bless and Keep All of You. Love, Cousin Rosemarie##imported-begin##Rosemarie Squillace##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. Death is an enemy to us all. It is especially an enemy when it strikes someone dear to us. God is more powerful than death and he promise to get rid of this enemy once and for all. The Bible teaches: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." (1Corinthians 15:26)Then the words of Jesus found at John 5:28 will be fulfilled that read: "Marvel not at this, for the hour is coming when all that are in the graves shall hear his voice and come forth." I hope these words will help you cope with the loss of your loved one.##imported-begin##R Brown##imported-end##

“ I believe some people are just too good, kind and gentle to remain in this world long. Phyllis was such a very loving and beautiful soul I'm sure God needed her. I remember her radiant and joyful smile and her warm loving hugs. It was always a better day after seeing Phyllis.Although I'm glad her suffering is over, my heart is broken for her family and friends.##imported-begin##Brenda Shropshire##imported-end##

Phyllis was a truly spectacular woman, who I have no doubt, dealt with the leaving of this world with the same grace and beauty with which she lived her life. I am so grateful to have had the opportunity to reconnect with you both a couple years back. I wish you all the fullness of God's love and comfort at this time. Love,

“ Dear Cousin Fred and family, Words are not adequate to express our sadness at the passing of your precious wife Phyllis. She fought the good fight for all these years against this terrible disease, and you and the family stood with her in support and prayer through it all. We know that when Phyllis passed into heaven, that she was immediately and forever healed, never to experience pain or suffering again, she is rejoicing at the throne of God and worshipping our Savior. Our prayer is for you and the family as you are feeling the loss of her loving presence in your lives. May you feel the comfort of our Lord and the comfort of loved ones and friends who are supporting you in their prayers. I just started thinking of an old Gospel song that has been a source of strength for those going through deep trial. “God Leads His Dear Children Along“. In shady, green pastures, so rich and so sweet, God leads His dear children along; Where the water’s cool flow bathes the weary one’s feet, God leads His dear children along. Refrain: Some through the waters, some through the flood, Some through the fire, but all through the blood; Some through great sorrow, but God gives a song, In the night season and all the day long. Our thoughts and continued prayers are with you. Much love from Cliff and Vickie Tomlinson and Jon and Christine, Adam and Rebekah.##imported-begin##Cliff & Vickie Tomlinson##imported-end##

“ Doc, my thoughts and prayers are with you, Sherri, Jason, & Andrew during this season of Phyllis' translation into the presence of Father. To me, she was one of my best, of best friends & family- but Phyllis treated everyone the same- with love and respect. She never knew a stranger. She achieved what many of us are striving for: to walk in such a 'pureness'- the holiness of God that lives are transformed for His glory. Phyllis will always be an 'angel'. I celebrate my homegirl's life and legacy with you as she dances, sings, shouts, and rejoices with the Heavenly Hosts before our Father's Throne. (((BIG SQUISHY HUGS!!!))) I love you all.##imported-begin##Kimberly Griffith Lewis##imported-end##

“ Phyllis made the greatest impact on me when I first met her at Living Faith Church.. I had never met a more kinder, sweeter, christian lady in my life...What a beautiful family you all are and the most talented I've ever seen. I was able to sit with her at our Ladies Tea with Southstrand Assembly Women's Ministries and she talked so proudly of her husband and children. I am so thankful to God for allowing me to know her just a little while....Praying for your family.. “ Dear Doc, Sherri, Jason, and Andrew, I am having a hard time putting into words how truly and very special your wife and mother was. I so wish I could be there to tell you in person, so that you could see the truth in my eyes and I could give you all a giant hug. She exuded such joy, peace, love, and all who knew or met her could feel the presence of the Lord in her presence. Dancing with her and you, Sherri, are treasured memories that I keep close to my heart, and worshiping with almost the entire family listening to the sweet song that would flow from her lips straight up to our Father's heart and ear. I know that she is with our King and that makes me delighted for her, but I pray that during this time you all will feel His comfort, peace, and joy in that knowing as well. How very hard it must be to let her go, I cannot even imagine it for your family. I love you all dearly and am praying for you.imported-beginJennifer Spataraimported-end
