

Phyllis Barbieri

May 21, 1932 - October 15, 2016

Phyllis Barbieri, age 84, died on Saturday, October 15, 2016 at Tideland's Waccamaw Hospital.

Born in Clifton, NJ, Phyllis was the daughter of the late Edith and John Harding. She was a teacher who enjoyed traveling, spending time with family and friends, singing in the "Golden Oldies". Anyone that knew her would be surprised if she didn't have on her red lipstick and nails manicured.

Survivors include her children, John Barbieri and his wife Heather of Floyd, VA, Gail Tyndall and her husband Jeffrey of Highland Lakes, NJ; grandchildren Ryann, Andrew, Leesah, Katie, Lathom and Bennett.

A memorial service will be held at 3:00 pm, Wednesday, October 19, 2016 at the Church of the Resurrection, 17 ByPass, Surfside Beach.

“ We are saddened by the loss of dear Phyllis. She was a sweet lady we enjoyed being around. She and I would chat before church service and both were singing angels in our church drive-thru nativity at Christmas. She spoke lovingly of her family often. She is now a beautiful angel singing melodies in God's glory. We will miss you Phyllis. Love from Nancy and Stan.

“ I remember Aunt Phyllis as a calm and loving presence in my childhood years....this was a rare thing in our noisy family.....she had sparkling eyes and pudgy cheeks when she smiled and a delightful laugh that she shared easily.....glad she is with Uncle Abby again...hugs to Johnny and Gail and family....

“ Though I only knew Phyllis for a short 3 to 4 years, I found her to be a gentle soul, with love for others in her heart. I am very honored to have had the experience of being in her presence even if for only a short while. RIP Phyllis.

“ Thoughts and prayers to Phyllis' family. She was the first neighbor we met moving into Winged Foot Ct. She always had a pleasant smile, I will miss that, her wave every time she passed by and her chats at church.

“ I will miss her wonderful smile, and gentle soul. Had the joy of spending many special trips, shows, birthdays, and visits together with Phyllis over the last twenty years as both a neighbor and a friend. Her love of family and God will always be remembered. May she rest in peace.
