“ Growing up, she was my second Mom, and Helen, Joey, Eddie and Allen were like my brothers and sisters. I was always welcome in your home and had a place reserved in one of the bunk beds in the boys bedroom on 62nd Ave. I miss you all and am so sorry that I can't be there with you during this difficult time. May you truly have the peace that passeth all understanding promised from our Lord. Love you all, Oatmeal.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4
