“ Jane, Dave and I are so sorry to hear of Porter's passing. He was a kind and gentle soul, always with a smile. We loved seeing you two when you were at your Venice home, and will have fond memories of Porter.

We pray for peace and comfort for you and your family.

we are very sorry to hear of porter's passing. He fought the battle as hard as he could but now he is at peace. We have fond memories of his smile, humor and times at golf. We will remember our times at water aerobics the greenbier, sanctuary, and Pinehurst as fond memories. We will be praying for you and your family.

“ Jane,
I remember when you and Porter played couples golf with the group on Friday nights at the Bucknell Golf Course. I so enjoyed seeing you holding hands and finding such comfort with each other. You shared many years of good times and I am so happy you had the opportunity to share a life together. I wish you many blessings and may God keep you in His loving arms.
