“ Dear Family,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one and send you my sincere condolences. The passing of a loved one can leave us feeling lost and heartbroken. But I've found very comforting words in God's word, the Bible. At Psalms 55:22, God promises to sustain those who throw their burden upon Him. God will also do away with death all together as brought out at Revelation 21:4. The bible also holds out the hope of a resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in death at Acts 24:15. May Jehovah, the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our trials (2 Corinthians 1:3,4), comfort you in your time of need. Heartfelt prayers are with your family.

“ Kelvin F. Lewis & Doretha J. Lewis
Dear Jo Jo and family, Very sorry to hear about Presley's passing, but we know it is a "home going" and that is what gives us comfort that words will never be able to describe. My Mother, Doretha, and I will keep you all in our prayers, knowing that the peace of our Father will rest upon you until we all join together for the ultimate family reunion - very soon.

“ I feel it only fitting that a young man such as Presley, who matured very early in life, with a strong work ethic and understanding of what fatherhood was about would be taken from this world way too soon... Though many years his senior, I learned much from Pres, not only on the job but in his knack for enjoyng life everyday. My heart goes out to all of you, Garland, Saundra, Andrea, Alexis, P.J, and of course to JoJo and Bailey who revived in Presley a new spark and outlook on his life. May God comfort your aching hearts and give you strength in the days, weeks, and years to come. Remember he would never ever wish any of your hearts to hurt..He loved you all....

“ Presley and Jojo not long ago came to my sons aid and worked for hours in the heat attempting to try and save our horse! Bobby and Patrick was upset and he came right over. Presley the next day said he had a horse they could have since they lost there's . We will never forget what he did for us. This is an example of the kindness he expressed.
