Quince Adams

LONGS | John Quincey “Quince” Adams, 91, of Longs, went to be with the Lord Thursday, December 25, 2008 at Conway Medical Center.

He was born June 18, 1917 in Conway, a son of the late John P. and Effie Hardee Adams. Quince was predeceased by one sister, Clara Belle Sawyer and her husband, Woodrow; two brothers, Oneil Adams and Elbert Adams; and a very special niece, Diane T. Holmes.

Mr. Adams, along with his wife, lived in the Wampee community of Horry County all of his life and was known by all. He was the one you never forgot once you met him. Quince farmed the community until his health would no longer allow. He loved children and loved to work. The Wampee community will always remember Mr. Adams under his pecan tree waving as we all passed on Highway 90.

Survivors include his wife, Lottie C. Adams of Longs; one brother, Larue Adams and his wife, Wanda, of Raleigh, N.C.; three special nephews, W.L. Holmes of Longs, John O. Adams and his wife, Sharon, of Longs, and Larry Sawyer and his wife, Page, of Lumberton, N.C.; and two special nieces, Janet M. Adams of Charlotte, N.C. and Robin Thompkins of Conway. Survivors also include a special great-nephew, Jamie W. Holmes and his wife, Ashley, of Longs; a special great-niece, Amy H. Richardson and her husband, Bryan, of Conway; and many other nieces and nephews. Mr. and Mrs. Adams were "Uncle Quince and Aunt Lottie" to so many not mentioned here and will always be. He will remain in all of our hearts and he loved you all.

Services will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, December 27, 2008, from the Ward Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. Larry Sawyer of Lumberton, N.C. officiating. The family will have a private interment following the services.

Visitation will be held immediately after the services on Saturday afternoon at the home of Amy H. Richardson, 2124 Hidden Oak Drive, Conway, SC 29527.

Please sign a guestbook at wardfuneralhome.org.

Memorials can be made to Mercy Hospice in Conway, S.C.

Ward Funeral Home of Loris, (843) 756-9273, is serving the family.

“ To the Family of Mr. Heyward G. Morris: My name is Carolyn Cutner, one of Jehovah's Witnesses. I am writing you because I heard of Mr. Morris's death. Even though I am not able to be there in person, I would like to express my deepest and sincerest condolences. I would also like to share with you a few words of comfort from the Holy Scriptures. I know that the death of a loved one can bring much pain and sorrow; but you are not left without hope.--1 Thessalonians 4:13,14 Our loving, Heavenly Father has promised you a time when you will be able to see Mr. Morris again.-
-Acts 24:15; John 5:28,29 Just knowing this will hopefully bring you some comfort during your time of bereavement. You also have God's promise that one day you won't even have to worry about loosing ANY of your loved ones again to this terrible "enemy", death!--Revelation 21:3,4; 1 Corinthians 15:26 Again, I am terribly sorry for your loss. I truly hope that you will be able to find some solace from God's Word, knowing that Mr. Morris and others you've lost in death have a chance to live again. Please be reassured that whatever God says, He CAN and WILL do!--Isaiah 55:11; Titus 1:2 I'll keep you and the rest of the family in my prayers. Sincerely
Yours, Carolyn Cutner Jehovah's Witness##imported-begin##Carolyn Cutner##imported-end##
