

R. Stanley Doeblner

July 1, 1917 - May 9, 2010

R. Stanley Doeblner passed away on May 9, 2010 in his home while surrounded by his loving family.

Stan lived a full life. He was born in Montoursville, PA, to Russell and Ursula Doeblner. After attending Temple University and Penn State, he began a long career in accounting and finance eventually serving as Executive Vice President of Argus in Chicago, IL. He had opportunities to live in various places throughout the US and to travel abroad. During his younger years, Stan had many interests that filled his free time. As a member of the Professional Handlers Association, he bred and trained English Setter bird dogs for field trials and hunting. He was also an avid outdoorsman who loved hunting and fishing.

After retirement, Stan and his wife, Helen, settled in South Carolina where they spent many happy years. He enjoyed the beach, spending time with Helen, his extended family, and their friends. During this time of his life, some of his favorite hobbies were gardening, cheering on the New York Yankees and the Nittany Lions of Penn State. Stan will be greatly missed.

Stan is survived by his wife, Helen Doeblner of Longs, SC. His children, Donna Moreland of Lothian, MD; Carolyn Pasich of Hamilton, MT; Jacque Ellis of Hamilton, MT; Betty Christl of Shallotte, NC; Russell Doeblner of Johnson City, TN and their families. Also surviving is his step-son, Jerry Johns, of Largo, FL; his brother, Reuben Doebler of Muncy Valley, PA and many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Stan chose not to have a funeral service. The family requests donations in his name to be made to Heartland Hospice Care, 1500 Main Street, Conway, SC 29526 in lieu of flowers.

Ward Funeral Home of Loris, (843) 756-9273, is serving the family.
