

Randolph Russell Roach

November 3, 1930 - April 12, 2020

Randolph Russell Roach, of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, passed away peacefully on Sunday, April 12 at age 89. Randolph was preceded in death by his wife, Katherine Roach, and his son, Kelly Roach.

Randolph (Randy) was born in Charlottesville, Virginia in 1930 to Enoch Blakey & Lillian Frances Roach. At 18, Randolph joined the United States Navy where he was able to travel to many places around the world. After his service in the Navy, he fell in love with Kathrine Louise Quesenberry, and the two were married in Baltimore, Maryland, in 1952. Randolph and Louise enjoyed a 53-year marriage until Louise's death in 2005.

Randolph and Louise raised five children: Teresa Stanley, Anita Poston, Cynthia Ham, Randa Roach, and Kelly Roach (deceased). Randolph was a grandfather of 8 and great-grandfather of 15. He is lovingly remembered as a hardworking provider, fearless protector, wise and generous friend, comical and joyful story-teller, and devoted husband and father. He will be immensely missed by friends and family.

Services will be private.

“ This may be strange but I remember going to Mr. and Mrs. Roach's house and heard many stories but I noticed all the roosters. Still today i wonder if the one I see in a store resides in their kitchen! Prayers and love to the family.
