“ Randy, Lynn& Mark all grew up across the street from us. Randy would come over to our backyard and play baseball with my brother Johnny Lawson and me. They made a game of home runs over the backalley fence. Lynn was playing the day I caught my first ball. We missed them very much when they moved. Loved the entire family.

“ Dearest Neighbor friend Jan, Kelly, Chris and family. We join many others in mourning losing your husband, father, grandfather and friend. We knew Randy as a private man, a kind soul, a dedicated family man and loving person. He was a proud Steward of home and property. We know he loved sports, and we always got a kick out of him in the backyard with a game on and family gathering round. He and J.E. saved countless baby ducks that always kept falling into the pond drain pipe. Mission accomplished, he went about his day satisfied to have done something for the fuzzy ones. God called him Home when you least expected. May the wonderful love of family guide you, carry you, support and comfort you during this grievous time. May precious memories serve to bring you loving peace in time. Our heartfelt condolences....the Cauley family...

“ Randy and I grew up in the same neighborhood as kids. Everyone would gather at his house to go play ball. He was always the best athlete of the neighborhood and was always a super nice guy. I regret hearing of him passing however, knowing Randy's demeanor he should be just fine in eyes of the Lord.

“ I met Randy in Surfside in 2015. He taught me everything there was to know about tires. He prepared me to succeed, and fail, by allowing me to figure things out for myself. Instead of mourning his passing, I will honor the times I had with him. I will never forget that voice on the phone when I call, only now I wish you would pick up one last time. Randy was an inspiration to everyone he encountered. He had such a positive impact on everything he did.

To his family:

My heart is heavy for you. Just know he is smiling down at all of us and he is enjoying life with God.

May God surround his hands around his soul and may God guide you and your family during this time in mourning.

RIP buddy.
