“ Dad and Grandma, I love you both very much and my thoughts and prayers are with you. I will always cherish the memories Grandpa shared with me. One of my favorite memories of him is the time he counted how many times I flipped my hair in a day. I loved that it showed in some small way how his mind worked. I will also always remember all those times we walked the beach with him looking for sharks teeth. He would always tell us about anything and everything he knew, like how things worked or why something did what it did. I loved that about him and I loved all the things he knew. P.S.I still find myself after all these years counting the strange things people do. Thanks Grandpa! :) ##imported-begin##Tina Szupillo##imported-end##

“ Uncle Raymond, will always be remembered by me for his kindness to my family, and his quick funny responses. I remember reading a letter written by Uncle Ray to my Dad, the letter was so funny and upbeat. My first thought will always be of his laugh. ##imported-begin##Denise and Tim Beauchesne##imported-end##
