“ Ray and I had many good times together dating all the way back to high school. He was my best buddy and he told me many times that I was the best friend he ever had. I sure will miss stopping by to see him at his farm and giving him a hard time. "RIP until we meet again from your "best friend" Bobby Kilgus (BK)

“ I met Ray many years ago through my brother, Gary Scott. Ray was one of the most honorable, decent men I have ever known. The love, care and devotion he had for Cindy was something we could all learn from. The love he had for his daughters was heart warming. Ray will be missed by many. God bless you Friend.

“ Although I had not seen Ray and Cindy in a long time, I kept up with them through our friend, Gary Scott. Ray was a great man. I have such wonderful memories of Ray' s quick wit and smiling face. He was a devoted husband to Cindy and took such good care of her. I admire and respect him so much. I will keep all of you in my thoughts and prayers.

“ We didn't get nearly as much time together as I wish we had. But we would always ask about each other's children. Ray loved Regi and Ryan with all of his heart. I also know of no other man who was so committed to caring for his wife as Ray. He always had time for me when I needed it. I will miss him dearly.
