“ To The Family of Mrs. Reba Lee Strickland I would like to express my deepest sympathy to each of you. Although we are not acquainted with one another, we are acquainted with the pain when our loved ones fall asleep in death. Jesus taught us to pray for God's Kingdom to come here upon the earth as it is in the heavens. The fact that the the heavens is peaceful, no sickness, death, etc. is surely a place where we would like to be. So when we pray for these conditions to come on the earth, we are asking God to restore the earth back to its original condition when he created the first Man and Woman. That Kingdom will be a reality here on the earth. The Scriptures promises that the day is soon to come in which death will be no more and that Almighty God Jehovah will wipe away the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever. He promises too that your loved ones, my loved ones and many others will hear his voice and come out of the memorial tombs graves to live in heaven-like conditions right here on the earth.##imported-begin##Annette Pegues##imported-end##

“ We are saddened by your loss. Although we never had the privilege of meeting Grandma Reba, we know from Taylor and Brandon's comments that she was a very special lady. We are sure that she will be greatly missed because she was greatly loved. We pray that God will be especially near to you in the days ahead providing the great comfort and love that only He can give. “ I wanted to extend my sympathy to you all in the loss of your mother. I have many fond memories of her. She was always faithful to visit my grandparents, Sam and Blanche Rhodes, and in fact, was just stopping by to visit them and brought a wonderful cake on the morning that Grandma Blanche passed away. You just don't forget the kindness of family and friends during a time of loss. It seems more and more of our family is gathering in heaven. What a time of rejoicing! God bless you all.
