“ Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and suffering is over
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.*

*Did you wonder I so calmly
Trode the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus' love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade.*

*And he came Himself to meet me with his pearly white DOVE.
In that way so hard to tread
And with Jesus' arm to lean on
Could I have one doubt or dread?*

*Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still:
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's will.*

*There is still work waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth-
You shall rest in Jesus' land.*

*When that work is completed,
He will gently call you home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!*

Becky you and I met at a time in my life that was not the greatest time. But things changed for me and I had to move on. But you were a very good friend to me and I will never forget the times we stayed up all night laughing and talking. The first thing Luke said to me when I told him is "I hope Matthew and Rascal are ok"! He knew how much you loved your son and that little baby Rascal. I pray for your family that they may somehow receive some comfort in knowing that you had a great heart. Because no matter the circumstances, everybody has good in their heart. I will always remember you and may God send His loving Grace to your family at this sad time in their life. Love you always Hope and Luke

“ To the Buffkin Family:

In your sorrow, may there be peace....In your thoughts, may there be love....In your hearts, may there be healing. Psalm 147:3 promises: "He is healing the brokenhearted ones, and is binding up their painful spots."

My condolences,
SJB.

Becky you were a dear friend of mine and I'm honored to have ever met you and to have had the time with you that I did. You were there for me for my last pregnancy with my son and was there when I got good and bad news for him. You were a wonderful mom Matthew was very lucky to have a mother like you because I would have been grateful to have you as a mom. I thought of you like one that is for sure. You will always be in my heart. I love you!!!!

“ Becky taught me how to crochet and always made me laugh. Her smile was contagious. I'll always remember her as a fun loving, spunky, great cook, and for a short time, my sister-in-law. I'm truly sorry for the family.
