

Reid Robertson Veatch

May 29, 1949 - November 30, 2025

Loris, SC...

Reid R. Veatch, age 76, passed away Sunday, November 30, 2025 at his residence.

Mr. Veatch was born in Hamilton County, TN a son of the late Walter Veatch and the late Mary Edna Kling Veatch. He was a veteran of the US Army serving in the Vietnam War. He moved from Southern California to Pennsylvania after he retired and ended up in South Carolina where he has enjoyed living and golfing as much as possible. His friends in Pennsylvania were very important to him and he still went on golf outings with them yearly. Mr. Veatch enjoyed playing baseball and softball, and loved boating. He was also a loyal and lifelong Dodgers fan as well as a UCLA Bruins fan. He will be most remembered as a wonderful husband, father, stepfather, and grandfather. In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by one sister, Susan Kraft.

Survivors include his wife, Debbie Veatch of Loris, SC; seven children, Linda Veatch and Lori Kenniston (Jason) both of Vancouver, WA, Teanne Clark of Elk Ridge, MD, Krista Brazzill of Alabama, Carrie Rockenstein of Loris, SC, Heather Miracle of Riverside, CA, and Krysten Lee (Rob) of Ashdown, AR; fourteen grandchildren; two great children; brothers, Daniel Veatch of Texas,

Mike Wilson of Kiev, Ukraine; and two sisters, Leslie Bilicz (Jim) of Colorado and Cris Partridge (Keith) of Georgia.

Services will be private.

Memorials may be made to a charity on one's choice.

“ Reid's mother was my first cousin and, until they moved to Illinois, we grew up with them. The last time I saw Reid was at my Aunt Lib's (his Mummur's) house probably 15-20 years ago. Reid was a wonderful person and I send sympathy to all his big, wonderful family. Janet Johnson Tanksley
