

Retired Sgt. Major Rayond J. Horta

January 19, 2009

MURRELLS INLET – Retired Sgt. Major Raymond J. Horta, 71, of 706 Wessex Drive died Monday, 1/19/09, at home after a period of failing health. He was born in Greenfield, MA on March 9, 1937, the son of Antonio and Elizebeth Unaitis Horta. He served in the US Army for 21 years in the 82nd Airborne retiring in 1976. After his retirement from the US Army he was self-employed for several years then worked for Camping World as a buyer for about 20 years until 2005. The bulk of his military service was served in Fayetteville, N.C. with trips abroad to Vietnam, Korea, Germany and the Dominican Republic. He was an avid golfer, enjoyed dancing with his wife, traveling and spending quality time with his cat, Georgie Girl. He was honest, loving, generous, and wonderful husband, father, grandfather, and friend. He was a member of St. Michael's Catholic Church, Knights of Columbus, Seniors Golf, VFW and American Legion. He is survived by his wife, Teresa, who was his best friend and soul mate of 50 years; four children Tari Ann Grimard and Wendy Mullen of Turners Falls, MA, Debbie Andrews of Greenfield, MA, and Mark C. Horta of Georgetown, SC; a brother; two sisters; nine grandchildren and a great granddaughter. He was predeceased by his daughter, Brenda Horta Morris in 1981 and parents. A celebration of his life will be held at 1pm, Friday, 1/23/09, at St. Michael's Catholic Church, Garden City, S.C. and a burial service will be held on 2/7/09 in Greenfield, MA. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to St. Michael's Church Building Fund, Cypress Dr., Garden City, S.C. 29576 or the Humane Society at Grand Strand

Shelter, 10th Ave N. Ext., Myrtle Beach, S.C. 29577.
