

Rev. E.W. Ingram

April 21, 2005

Rev. Everett W. Ingram, Jr., age 72, of Red Fox Circle, died Thursday, April 21, 2005 at his residence following an illness. Rev. Ingram was born in South Boston, Va., a son of the late Everett W. Ingram, Sr. and Virginia Lee Coffman Ingram. A U.S. Navy veteran, he served with NATO for two years in Italy. He had the distinction of being baptized in the Mediterranean Sea at Puteoli, where the Apostle Paul once visited. He attended Emmanuel College, Columbia Bible College and Holmes Theological Seminary. Rev. Ingram pastored Hemingway Pentecostal Holiness Church, Great Falls Pentecostal Holiness Church, Lexington Pentecostal Holiness Church, Darlington Pentecostal Holiness Church, Bible Temple in Toledo, Ohio, Church of the Comforter in Tucker, GA., Ebenezer Pentecostal Holiness Church in Congaree, SC, Socastee Pentecostal Holiness Church and East Conway Pentecostal Holiness Church. Rev. Ingram served six years as Superintendent of the Great Lakes Conference. In 1988, he founded Coastal Worship Center, where he served as pastor for nine years. He was a member of the SC IPHC. Because of poor health, he retired from the pastorate in 2003. Since that time, he sought a way to continue his ministry of witnessing for Jesus. He visited a number of churches distributing bumper stickers that read, "JESUS IS THE ONLY SAVIOR" Many of these are still available for those who might desire one. He was predeceased by a sister, Lois Simmons and two brothers, Rev. Bill Ingram and Charles Ingram. He is survived by his wife, Anne Nowlin Ingram of Myrtle Beach: two sons, Everett Walter "Walt" Ingram, III and his wife, Dianne of Leesville and Rev. David Ingram and his wife, Kathy of Lake City: one daughter, Cindy Tate and her husband, Rick of Hurricane Mills, Tenn.:eight grandchildren, E.W. IV " Rhett" and his wife, Kelly, Nikki Price and her husband, Ben, Lauren Tate, Kelly Ingram, Zach Tate, Jordan Ingram, Davey Ingram and Cheney Ingram: two great grandsons, Jackson Lee Ingram and Everett Mason Price: one brother, Kenneth Ray Ingram of Virginia Beach, VA.,; three sisters, Elizabeth Frazier of Greenville, SC, Ora May Simpkins of Alexandria, VA. and Catherine Loftis of Greer, SC.; a special niece/sister in-law, Yvonne Ingram of Myrtle Beach. Funeral services, directed by Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel will be held 2:00 PM Saturday from Coastal Worship Center, located on the corner of Hwy 544 and Forestbrook Rd., with Rev. Terry Fowler, Rev. Jesse Simmons, Rev. Jerry Howell and Rev. Rick Tate officiating. Burial will follow in Hillcrest Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 6-8 PM Friday at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, his wishes were that memorials be sent to East Conway Pentecostal Holiness Church Missions Fund, 309 Old Hwy 544, Conway, SC 29560 or to Mercy Hospice of Horry County, PO Box 50640, Myrtle Beach, SC 29579.

“ The Ingram family is in our prayers. I knew Bro. E.W. and all his family well. I was too young to remember him being pastor at Great Falls, but my Mom does. Bro. E.W. has gone home to be with Jesus now and is rejoicing with all the other saints.

“ Anne and Family, Plesase know our prayers are with each of you. Pastor E.W. was a unique person in many ways,always just a phone call away. We will never forget when our home burned and E.W. came day after day and helped carry our charred belongings to the dumpster that had been placed in our front yard. He was battling cancer at the time but wouldn't hear our protest.He was always the first to appear when there was a crisis.And also always had a kind word or a funny comment just at the approiate time. Can you imagine the rejoicing He,Bill and other family members are enjoying now. We are as close as your phone should you need us for anything. “ I deeply appreciate the life, ministry and service of Bro. Ingram. His ministry in the West Oklahoma Conference Camp meeting, while I served as Superintendent, was a spiritual blessing to our people. His love for, and service to, the IPHC will not be forgotten. May our Lord be the "God of all comfort", coming to your side with his sustaining grace. Be assured of our prayers.###imported-begin##Bob R. Ely###imported-end##

“ Hi everyone... This is Alinna. I went to Coastal most of my life and Pastor Ingram is a man that I will never forget. I just wanted to wish you the best and tell you that I'm really sorry that I can't make it down for the services this weekend, but I am in school in Boone, NC currently, and I can't make the trip. My mom Melissa and sister Vally and step-dad John are all going to be there though, and I'm very glad about that. I am praying for you all and I know that you will be comforted by all of your friends and family. I miss you all.. In Him, Alinna###imported-begin###Alinna Dedaj###imported-end##
