“ So so sorry for the your loss Barbra! My earliest childhood memories are there in Georgetown! With Rhonda and Kenna and your family! I've always thought of you as my second mother when I was a little boy and Rhonda and Kenna as my sister's! I know it's been quite a few years since we've seen y'all and the last time I remember us kids being together I believe we were in trouble and me and Rhonda we're getting a spanking from you!! Lol. Just know that today my heart is heavy ... As long as it's been I feel like I've lost not only an old childhood friend but my sister as well!! Prayers and condolences for the family all the way from Chatsworth Georgia! Rest in peace my friend!! Youll be missed!

“ Dear Barbara, Kenneth, and Family, We are so saddened to hear of your dear sweet Rhonda's passing. I can remember your children coming to visit you at the restaurant, when we worked together. Sweet and very polite children. Please know that y'all are in our thoughts and prayers. I know that your hearts are broken and Rhonda will be greatly missed. God's Promise
God Didn't Promise Days Without Pain,
Laughter Without Sorrow, Nor Sun Without Rain,
But He Did Promise Strength For The Day, Comfort For Tears, And Light For The Way
Just Remember
When storms come your way,
Just remember you know the Master of the wind, when sickness finds you,
Just remind yourself you know the great Physician.
When your heart gets broken.
Just say I know the Potter, it doesn't matter what we face or go through.
Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life. He is everything we need.
God bless and comfort y'all in the days to come. With Our Deepest Sympathy,
Michael & Carol P. Cribb

“ Oh where do I begin, there so many memories that I have. I guess I'll start with the day Barbara brought her home from the hospital. That's the day my heart fell in love with those big rolling blue eyes and that flipped curly hair, and that big mouth... she was so special because she was our first little niece.

What amazed me most about Rhonda was as a baby and little toddler, she rarely cried, if she did, you knew something was wrong. I remember being at their house when she was 3 or 4 when she got sleeping, she'd take her blanket and go to her room and get in the bed....never even needing or wanting anyone in her room like most kids do at that age... She was such a different, I guess independent baby, if that's the right thing to say... I just know she impressed me by doing that.

When she got a little older I started taking her skating some on Friday nights... she loved that and so did my friends love having her there. We'd all get a big kick out of her dancing to the music, she had the moves. And of course everyone had to hold and skate with her, the all just fell love.

I love the fact Rhonda always was open and talked to me about anything, and loved the fact she didn't mind me talking about my personal life situations with her... I have to say, I'd tell her things and we would get the biggest laughs about it...I'm so glad she was open minded and had such a soft and tender heart.. even tho' at times she tried not to act like she was sensitive.. but, she was indeed so very much so.

Rhonda was a character like non other. She had no problem expressing herself or what she did, whether it being good or bad...She was straight forward with things she would say, and to think she would actually share her thoughts and actions out loud....even tho' some of it would be shocking, but yet so funny. That's why I loved her so because things like that, made her the person she was, and that was very unique...

In ending this, I'd like to say...Rhonda my baby... honey, I will love you til my dieing day.. I'll never forget you or your wild, crazy, sensitive, compassionate, loving ways.It breaks my heart knowing your life has ended at such an early age, when you had so much life to live. I break down and I'm so deeply sad at times, it's unbearable... I know things will get easier... but, I'll never stop loving or wishing you were still here..and I know Kenneth, Barbara, Kenna, Cody, Brianna, Kylee, even little Paisley is heart broken along with many who will love and miss you from here on out... I'm just glad I got the chance to have you in my life for the short time you were here...So I thank God for that... I love you honey.... and may you rest in peace. Love always, your Uncle Travis.
