“ Dear Sandy, Wendy, and Troy: I don't need to tell you what Dick meant to me. He was my "special friend" and I so enjoyed all the cards that we shared with each other over the years. He always made me laugh. Sandy, I know that he and Barbara will be waiting for us at the "Gate" when we arrive. All my love, Donna###imported-begin##Donna Hoaglund###imported-end##

“ Sandy, Troy and Wendy: We were all so sorry to hear about Richard, and sorrier still that we never had the opportunity to let him know how proud we always were of his accomplishments. If ever there were a time to let someone know they are in our thoughts so often, yet let that time slip by...it's now. He was our cousin, we loved him.....you are his family and we love you as well. Thank you for making his life, on Earth, a happy one. You will all be in our prayers at this time of sorrow. “ Sandy, Troy & Wendy, Sorry to hear the passing of Richard. I have so many fond memories of him. I use to visit Aunt Sarah & Uncle Jim and he would always tease me. Actually pull my ponytails. I still see his laughter as he did it. I am one of Catherine Wenschhof daughters. Again I pray that you all can find God's peace in Richard's death.
