“ May you rest in peace: I for one will remember your kind heart your eagerness to always help your friend or even strangers Never seen or heard you raise your voice to anyone ... I will remember and cherish all the memories....Thank you for all you ever did for us. My special memories are of the little blue Volkswagen. Recently the special day of the quilt.... What a special visit!!!! Had so many plans to visit and make more memories but the lord had a different plan. RIP.
To the familysending love and condolences . Sherri Woods.

“ From the very beginning of our military career to now Richard has always had a special place in my heart I cherished our many years of friendship serving together at Fort Bragg, Germany and Korea. In the service and out he was always there if you needed him. I was honored to always call him my dear friend
To his wife and children my heart is broken right along with yours it's my honor to call Richard my friend. You're on my prayers. Richard will greatly missed James Woods
RIP ... my buddy
