“ *I will never forget your smile, your beautiful red hair and your spunk!
There were many days I smiled at something you posted and I couldn't wait to meet my new found cousin in November at Pow Wow. Dance among the heavens Richia! You will be missed!*

“ Dear Family, our prayers and thoughts are with you all, now and always. This is truly such a sad loss. Although I have not seen you in many years, my heart is broken. May God wrap his never ending arms around you and keep you strong in the days ahead. Reba, Michael, I shall never forget the friendship that we had and Richia has always been one of my Baby Girls. I love you all and again you are in my prayers. Love, Martha Floyd Tyler

“ I remember when my family and I first joined the tribe back in the early 2000's. Richia greeted us with that big, bright smile she had. I was very shy and I noticed how beautiful her hair was. My dad, Homer Johnson, told her that I always say that noone will believe I was native because I had blue eyes. Richia smiled that beautiful smile and looked me in the eye and said "I have fire red hair. If I am native so are you. Don't ever let anyone tell you who you are by your outward appearance. What flows through your veins is what you are. You are native and noone can take that from you". She gave me confidence and encouragement just like she has over the years when I was discouraged about life. I'm going to miss you, cousin. Aho.

My beautiful daughter. I am probably the most lost I ever have or will ever be. If we could turn back time I would hold you so tight and never let go. Well until you told me to. You weren't much to be squeezed to tight. Yesterday you were but a baby it seems and now a woman that has left a mark in time and on our hearts. Our birthday s are coming in Oct. I can't even imagine what those days will be. I only want to remember your soft voice and how beautiful you are. Today I know you struggle no more. That gives me peace but the peace brings so much sadness.

I love you to eternity and beyond. Mama loves you babygirl. Fly high and free and at peace💕

I am sad but very happy. Beautiful Richia is in no more pain. What a wonderful person she was. Her smile, her kindness and those special words she could say to make you feel so good. I will miss her but, I will see her again one day. May God help her family through this loss and give them comfort. Allen, I am so sorry for your loss. Becky Smith

I am devastated, completely in shock! Beautiful, beautiful Richia!!! To me, you had it all, a huge family, the Tribe, but God must have needed another Beautiful woman. Reba, I can say I know how you feel. To lose a child, there are no words to describe it. I am so sorry. So sorry I have been out of touch and wish I could be there with you. My heart is aching and tears are flowing for I am grieving along with you all. 910-358-6388
