Tribute Wall

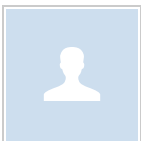

“ Riley was a special person, with a humor that we shared many years, but though not that often. He was a man with a gentle heart inside and out. He will be missed and thought about by many. I am thankful God took him home to be with Him. I now know Riley is much, much happier in his new body. To the family of Riley, know that he is at peace and home with his earthly father and mother and with His Father God. Shed no tears, or anger to anyone, that he is gone, just rejoice in his now abundance of love. May God Bless you all. I can hear Riley now and see that smile, "God I have new legs and a knew body,"###imported-begin##Brenda Bailey##imported-end##
