Tribute Wall

“ Larry, as a friend of yours for many years, even though we do not see one another as often as we should, I can offer one simple truth that may console you in some small way. We are all spiritual beings having a human experience and not human beings having a spiritual experience. Rita is sitting by God's side continuing her spiritual experience.##imported-begin##Fred Dula##imported-end##

“ I just learned of my cousin's passing. In November I lost my wife who was the same age as Rita to the same disease. That makes Rita's loss more acute. I recall, ages ago, Rita, her sister's, and I playing around Grandpa Monroe's house until well after dark. Aunt Agnes would fetch us, all dirty and mosquito bitten, for baths and supper. Later we would listen to static and radio stations in foreign languages on Big Pa's huge radio. All was so simple and safe then.##imported-begin##Ken Ford##imported-end##

“ Dear Larry & Matt, We are so very sorry about the loss of your sweet wife and mother. Matt, I was fourteen years old when I lost my dad, and know the sorrow you feel in the loss of your mother.Larry, I am Patrick Higgins grandfather. I visited you and your wife once several years ago at Matts birthday party. My heart aches for you. I do not know the pain you are enduring because I still have my wife. I can only say that I am sure you are in mourning. If I can do anything to help, please let me know. Look unto Jesus and may He give you grace during this difficult time. ~George & Emma Ray~##imported-begin##Rev. George & Emma Ray##imported-end##
