“ Dear Mr. Ryan's Family, Our family will always remember Robert. We didn't get to spend that much time with him, but in the time we did spend with him, we quickly learned what a truly special person he was. Every time we saw him he always had a special gift for us, no matter what the occasion. We will never forget his friendship, his generosity, and all the wonderful stories. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Chad and Hannah Harmon###imported-begin###Chad and Hannah Harmon###imported-end##

“ Mr. Ryan's Family, Unfortunately, we only had the opportunity to meet Robert a handful of times. However, I greatly enjoyed his company and conversation. Despite the fact we did not know him very well, he always brought gifts for my wife and daughter. Most importantly to me, he was a great friend of my Grandfather's Willard Church. I felt like I knew him better than I actually did through my Grandfather. He will be sorely missed... Jim, Kim, and Katelin Harmon###imported-begin###Jim, Kim, & Katelin Harmon###imported-end##

“ Robert was such a delightful person and an inspiration to everyone at Pawleys Island Community Church in his faithful attendance and joyful countenance. How wonderful to live such an active life right up to the end. We would all wish to be so blessed! Our thoughts and prayers are with you, for we know how much you will miss him; as will we.###imported-begin###Gordon & Jane Young###imported-end##
