“ Bob and Jean were good neighbors. I always enjoy chatting with them either in Spring Forest or at Murrells Inlet Presbyterian Church. After Jean's passing, Bob would often stop as I was walking my dog and tell me how things were going with him. He always had something interesting to tell me. He was a gentleman and a gentle man. I know he and Jean are now reunited. My sincere sympathy to his family. Harlan McCaskill###imported-begin###harlan mccaskill###imported-end##

“ My dad Jim Pletcher was manager of the Dresden A & P grocery store and was good friends of course with your dad. Both my parents are gone now and so I've lost track of lots of the old Dresden folks. But, good memories of the hardware and such close friendships with all the Dresden folks. I'm thankful for all those memories and pray you will come to enjoy all your memories of growing up in Dresden and with your parents, too. My sympathies to you Robin and all your family.
