Robert T. Callahan

Robert T. "Bob" Callahan age 74, devoted husband and father, died Thursday, June 28, 2012, at Medical University of South Carolina.

Born in New York, NY, he was a son of the late Thomas F. and Olga Banfich Callahan.

Bob graduated from Fordham Prep School and from Fordham College. He received a MBA from New York University. He served in the Marine Corps Reserves from 1959-

1963. Bob had a successful career of 32 years as an analyst (CFA) and securities salesman in New York. He was very active in his children's activities as coach and mentor for Indian guides/princess. In Pawleys Island he served as a board member with Teach my People for over 10 years. He was also involved in Outreach Farm, supported

Miss Ruby's Kids and was a Eucharistic Minister at Precious Blood of Christ Catholic Church. Bob loved all music; traditional country, bluegrass, opera were his favorites, and he was known to break into song himself on occasion. He was an avid reader and had an encyclopedic knowledge of history, particularly World War II. He also loved spy novels and mysteries. He loved to garden, play golf, travel, cook, enjoyed spicy foods and entertaining . He was a life-long fan of the NY Giants and season ticket holder for 60 years, with the highlight being a trip to Super Bowl XXI in Pasadena.

Survivors include his wife of 47 years, Jill Callahan; daughter, Laura De Couto (Marshall) of Bermuda; sons, Timothy (Carolyn) Callahan of Short Hills, NJ, Matthew Callahan of Boulder, Colorado and 5 grandchildren, Lola, Isaac, Elan, Jonah and Emma.

A memorial service will be held at 10:00 AM Monday, July 2, 2012 at Precious Blood of Christ Catholic Church with Father Pat Stensen officiating.

Dear Mrs. Callahan and family It has been almost two weeks now since I read your husband's obituary. I wanted to say that even though I did not know him, he was a man who made a difference in his community. Obviously, he was a man who was an asset to any community. Surely, he will be missed by all those whose lives he touched. May God's mercy, grace and comfort be with each of you is my prayer as we all mourn his passing. Sincerely, Cynthia Lingle
