“ We are so sorry that we couldn't make the trip to be with you at this unbelievably/terrible time in your lives.Â This is the time that children, no matter how grownup or old need a parents shoulder to cry on.Â You three kids and your families have been through so very much sadness, frustration, and anger in the past year with the loss of "both" parents our sister-in-law and brother.Â We hope that the prayers that we have offered for you somehow give you the courage to do what needs to be done at this time and that in the days and weeks to come, with help, you will all find strength to continue "forward" in your lives.Â My brother has done the unspeakable in ending his life - he must have been in a very dark place in his heart and mind and I hope that you can forgive him for the pain that you are now suffering.Â When a person goes over that line, he isn't responsible for the decisions that he makes.Â Common sense no longer holds a part in their lives.Â We hope that this horrible time can somehow be made right with a positive act - perhaps this is the single act that will bring you three siblings back into each others hearts to help each other cope, to remember the days of childhood when you had each other to cling to in times of sadness or hurt.Â "Try" to remember your family when life was much more simple and happy.Â Let go of your grievances and go "forward" together into the future. God bless you all.Â Remeber that we are here for you any time, just pick up the phone if you need help or just to say "Hi"!!Â We love you all.##imported-begin##Uncle Ernie & Aunt Doris Charon##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember when Bobby and I came to New York for our honeymoon and your parents took us to the city. It was so fun shopping with Bob. He loved to look at everything, as I did being from such a small town. It was great. We had so much fun that day. It seemed, I could always talk to him and he would always make me feel so welcomed. I want to let you all know that my prayers are with you in this sad time. God bless and be with you all. Sincerely, Debbie###imported-begin##Debbie Charon###imported-end##

“ To our three dear cousins and your families"our" Uncle Bob's children and grandchildren - We are so very lost for words at this time and hope and pray that God will give you all the courage to "somehow" understand and love your Dad, even though he has given you a heavy cross to carry, and remember all the good times that you have all had through the years - especially years gone by! He was a very special person and Uncle to us and we will always hold him close to our hearts. Though the miles have kept us separated for a number of years, we have never forgotten our younger years "together - as a very loving family" when we were young and all living in MA and then after you were born and we used to meet at Gram Cora's and share the love that very few families have ever felt. Remember these days of laughter and offer up the tougher times. Know that your Dad is with your Mom Aunt Marienow and the loss of her by his side is what was his final cross to bear and that he found that cross to heavy to carry. It's a shame that he didn't feel the love that we all felt for him in our hearts, but his life long partner had gone ahead of him to pave the way. Never forget how much he loved you all and turn to God for your strength in the days ahead. Your family in MA are always and will always be here for you and we hope that you will never forget how much that we love you all. God bless and give you strength at this time. We love you with all our hearts.##imported-begin##Roland & Sandy Miller##imported-end##

“ Dear Family of Robert Charon, I am sorry about the lost of your loved one. Words cannot describe feelings in a time like this. Many have found comfort in the Bible's promises of seeing our past loved ones again. Keep memories of your loved one close.##imported-begin##Dorothy W.##imported-end##
