Myrtle Beach.....Robert Brian Douglas, born 1940 died Friday, June 5, 2020. He was the son of the late Earle & Hattie Douglas.

Bob is survived by his adoring wife Linda (Avitable) Douglas, his 2 daughters Christine Freeman and husband Darrell and Beth Douglas. He is also survived by his grandchildren Robert James McDonald, Christopher Thomas Freeman, and Meagan Leigh Freeman.

He is predeceased by his brothers Earle & Frank and his sister Doreen Fiengo. He was so very proud of his two daughters and was devoted to his grandchildren. He is also survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins and in-laws. We will dearly miss him.

Bob was so proud of being a Marine, he would always say once a Marine always a Marine.

He worked for many years at Yale University, where he was introduced to the world of computers. He later worked for FRM, traveling to many different universities, training people on computers for energy management. He earned many letters of recognition which he was very proud. When he wasn't working, he loved music and acting at the community theater. He enjoyed camping, boating, skiing and karaoke.

“ I first worked with Bob at CMU in 1992. I had just graduated from college and didn't know what to expect in the work world. It was incredible how much I learned from Bob that first week, but what was even more extraordinary was how enjoyable Bob made the job. We worked hard and long days, but the days flew by. Bob had a way of bringing an amazing positive energy to every challenge. Bob was truly a friend and a mentor. His legacy of technical knowledge and positive energy lives on through the many friends he worked with.

“ Linda,

Bob was truly one of a kind. Having had the great fortune to work closely with him for many years, it would be impossible to recount all that I gained from his mentoring, but perhaps even more important I came to realize what a caring and compassionate man he was. He always saw the best in people, on occasion even talking me out of terminating someone. All who knew him will remember his great sense of humor. His quick wit and jovial remarks could always brighten the spirit in a room. He was truly a 'good guy' and I will miss him.
