“ Dear Rob, Cindy & Family, We are sorry for your loss. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Your father was one of the best. We will miss him very much. We would always look forward to seeing Bob at the office. His great sense of humor and friendly banter always brightened our day. He was never without pictures of the grandchildren, and a funny story or two. He was also a very caring person. What a blessing it has been to have both Bob & Fay in our lives. We look forward to seeing them again someday in heaven.##imported-begin##Fred & Phyllis Tomlinson##imported-end##

“ Cindy, Rob and David, I was saddened to learn of your father's passing when I spoke to my daughter Linda over the phone and she told me as we are vacationing here in Florida again this year. I remember how nice it was to visit with your Dad at my cousin's home in the same neighborhood at Myrtle Beach.last year on our way home. We had a great visit. He was such a good man, and fun, too. I know now that he has come "home" to Fay. My sympathies to you all - you had a great Dad.##imported-begin##Joanne Brecht##imported-end##

“ Dear Rob & Cindy: I will never forget the man who taught me, among other things, how to tie a necktie correctly and how to throw a baseball. Your father was one of the nicest people I ever knew; he had a good heart and a great sense of humor to go with it. I'm sure I speak for all of the Calvanese family who lived at 20 Autumn Road when I say that Mr. Philo and Mrs. Philo were the best neighbors we would ever hope to have. His wit and wisdom will never be forgotten.##imported-begin##Vincent L Calvanese##imported-end##
