“ To be honest, it's hard to even start. I have known this man all of my life. I have never experienced any ill will in any interactions with Mr. Robert Ford, only honesty and sincerity. We still have the rake the he and Mrs Melda gave us for a housewarming gift. Mr. Robert, thank you for your dedication to Christ, church and community. You will definitely be missed.

*To the family: We pray that God will keep you in his care.

I knew Robert for over thirty years. He was always the same. Sharp mind and asked good questions. Remember well how we sat and talked when Melba passed and how he talked about Samantha and Robbie, his love and faith in them. What a shame, what a loss with him and Robbie taken. Samantha I pray for your strength in losing both parents and Robbie. Robert was to me a person who acted as a Christian should. Kenneth Thompson
