“ To all the family:
I have many fond memories of Mr. Estley; even though he hasn't been able to be on his normal front row pew at church his memory will live on. Mr. Estley was a humble man and when he prayed you knew his prayers reached heaven. There were times he probably didn't need to be driving to church but he wasn't going to miss. He loved Berea Church and we loved him. Before he got so feeble I would see him at Wendys eating his usual grill chicken sandwich and he always wanted to buy my lunch and wanted me to set and talk awhile. Mr. Estley is where he always wanted to be with Jesus. Our prayers go out to all the family.
