“ That hair of his!!! He wore it like (kinda) my dad did. He was very special to me even though our times together were few because of all the miles between our families. I remember each one though. He made them memorable. Love you girls! Your cousin Dana

“ He always had those cowboy boots on and our favorite saying with each other was rock and roll and hoochie "cooch" because I used to say it wrong when I was little but it's from the song "rock and roll, hoochie koo"
