“ I never got the pleasure of meeting Bobby myself, but by the way my fiance Harley talks about him, I felt like I had known him for years. He has all kinds of crazy stories about how they hung out as kids and young adults, and how their kids were close in ages and all hung out. He always has a smile on his face when talking about Bobby, and now a tear in his eye. Prayers that your family remains strong during this hard time.

“ Brother I miss you a lot !!! Been thinking about you non-Stop. Met you back on the day when I was the co host of the Mad Max Morning show and we hit it off immediately. I remember putting you on air with us after having a few drinks . We always joked that we couldn't understand your redneck accent especially after a few beers . We would joke around and get a reneck translator to explain to us what you were trying to say . It made for some funny radio . You were a good sport had a huge heart and cared so much about people . I'll miss that laugh and the In depth conversations we used to have especially about our kids. You are greatly missed my brother its just not fair that you have been taken from us so young . You just recently asked me to get you Aaron Lewis tickets at the House Of Blues . Well I have them and I am still waiting for you to call to come get them. I just can't fathom you are really gone . This just can't be real

“ It is still hard for me to wrap my head around the fact that you are really gone. As very young teens, you became someone special to me and even through life took on different paths, I never really thought that either of us would be taken out of this world so young. You will be missed my friend. My prayers are with your girls, your mom, and the rest of family and friends.

“ They say everything happens for a reason, whether you understand the reason or not. I truly don't understand the reason for this. I'm so sorry for the loss of your kind, sweet, beautiful boy. My heart goes out to you.

You're in my thoughts and prayers for God to wrap his lovin' arms around you and ease your pain and grief. Love y'all.
