

Robert Hobart

November 9, 2007

WALTERBORO | Mr. Robert "Bob" D. Hobart, 81, formerly of Surfside Beach and Garden City, passed away Friday, November 9, 2007 at Veterans Victory House in Walterboro, SC. He was born in Redstone, Pennsylvania, the son of John and Rose Hobart. Other than his parents, he was predeceased by his eight brothers and sisters. Mr. Hobart was a WWII Veteran Merchant Seaman, serving from December 1941 until June 1947. Then he joined the U.S. Marine Corps and served on the U.S.S. Missouri # BB-63 in Marine Detachment from June, 1947 until November, 1950. A forever proud Marine, Mr. Hobart organized the Grand Strand Marine Corps League Detachment #873 in 1994 and served as its 1st Commandant. He also assisted his Marine brother, Jim Hobart in organizing the Marine Corps League, Detachment #1038 in Calabash, NC. His passions and hobbies were making stained glass and "jitterbugging," learning both from the masters, he was a master of both. Mr. Hobart is survived by his beloved companion, Pat Metzger of Surfside Beach; son, William Hobart and wife, Tracy; three daughters, Debra Cotter and husband, Alan, Kathy Atkins and husband, John and Evelyn Nauss and husband, Bill; and five grandchildren, all living in or near Mechanicsburg, PA. Graveside services will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday, November 13, 2007 in Florence National Cemetery. Visitation will be 6 to 8 p.m. Monday, November 12, 2007 at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel. Please sign a guest book at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com. Memorials may be made to Coastal Rescue Mission, PO Box 8386, Myrtle Beach, SC 29578. Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel, is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ To the Hobart Family sorry to here of the loss of yours and our prayers and thoughts are with each of you.May God Bless and Keep you each and every one. James Luther National VAVS Deputy Rep. Marine Corps League Dept.of N.C. North Central DVC##imported-begin##James Luther##imported-end##

---

November 13, 2007 at 12:00 AM