“ You were a slow talking man but not slow to show kindness to o others or to make everyone feel that we’re your very best friend. My husband, Ronald, treasured your friendship and my mother in law, Hazel Todd loved you with her complete being. She spoke of you like a son and you treated her as a mother. A crown awaited you in Heaven for being just you you were. You will be missed because “we never had. Friend like you.” Sincerely, Gail Lilly Todd
