

Robert James Stewart

May 28, 2007

Robert J. "Scott" Stewart, 73 passed away Monday, May 28, 2007 at his home. Born in Glasgow, Scotland, he was the son of the late Robert and Isabel Stewart. He immigrated to New Jersey in 1947 and resided in Trenton, Hamilton and Atlantic City, NJ. He attended Trenton Central High School and was employed for many years as Display Director for Lit Brother's and Homberger's Dept. Stores earning recognition for his storefront window displays. He retired from the State of New Jersey Dept of Civil Service. Mr. Stewart retired to the area and served as a volunteer at the Grand Strand Regional Hospital and Waccamaw Community Hospital and enjoyed his morning Mall Walkers Group. He loved to travel, crossword puzzles, and classic movies. He was a talented interior designer with a quick wit and big heart. Surviving are sisters, Christina Stewart and Linda Stewart; brother, Norman Stewart all of Hamilton, NJ; niece Kelly Stewart of Newtown, PA; nephews, Matthew and Stephen Galullo of Hamilton, NJ and a great nephew and great niece, Thomas and Karly Lakavitch of Newtown, PA. Services will be held at a later date. Memorials may be made to ALS Hope Assoc., PO Box 40777, Philadelphia, PA 17107 or American Cancer Society, 950 48th Ave., Myrtle Beach, SC 29577.

Tribute Wall

“ May GOD provide peace and comfort at this time of your sorrow. Scott was a wonderful man, full of caring and compassion. Although he will be missed, the joy he brought will always be remembered.##imported-begin##Carl Canteruccio##imported-end##

May 30, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ May GOD bless your family during this time of sorrow. Scott was a good fine man whose compassion and caring brought great comfort to many.##imported-begin##Don De Lano##imported-end##

May 30, 2007 at 12:00 AM