“ Robert, after your first major ordeal and you were discharged, I thought it would just be a matter of time before we worked together again. However, God had other plans for you. It's very hard to lose someone that you love, especially someone who was so gifted and suffered and fought so hard to try and return to a regular life again. Nobody except those who were close to you knows the road you traveled these last 3 years looking for recovery. Joe South had a hit with "Walk A Mile in My Shoes"...I don't think I could have made a quarter of your mile. I never gave up hope that one day I would walk through that door and hear you say, like you always greeted me with "Looooouu". When I pass over, I hope you are there to greet me that way!##imported-begin##Lou Krieger##imported-end##
